Five McQuaid Jesuit alumni win Monroe County election races

ROCHESTER, N.Y., NOV. 7, 2007... Five McQuaid Jesuit alumni won in Monroe County elections Tuesday. Incumbent Mike Green '79 was re-elected to a second term as Monroe County District Attorney, capturing 69 percent of the vote. Joe Nesser '75 won the Monroe County Family Court Judge race with 52 percent of the vote. Andrew Serrano '98 defeated three opponents to win an East Rochester Village Trustee race with 26 percent of the vote. John Lomenzo '64 was re-elected as Penfield Town Justice. And Michael Sciortino '93 was re-elected as Parma Town Justice.

McQuaid Jesuit is a private, Catholic college preparatory school for young men in grades 7-12. It is named for the first Catholic Bishop of Rochester, the Most Rev. Bernard J. McQuaid. The school's mission is to foster the development of the spiritual, intellectual, physical, emotional and aesthetic talents of young men through personal concern for each student, competitive educational programs, a distinctive Jesuit spirit, and a formative sense of community. McQuaid Jesuit offers financial aid to students in grades 7-12 who qualify academically, but don't have the financial resources to attend.
